“ Uncle Royce, I knew Kevin was I'll from you telling me. However, I didn't know he passed until I saw it in a Facebook post. No one contacted me. I would not have expected fro you as I know how profound the death of a child can be and will be for a long time. Kevin was dear to me, although we didn't keep in touch much. He was a Pall bearer for my daughter, Lindsey and jumped at that honor when I asked him. I will forever keep him alive on my heart and in my loving and fun memories of our childhood. I am truly saddened.

My deepest and most sincere condolences go out to you my dear uncle Royce. I love you always...

Your first neice,

Paula Kaye Crain
