

Aaron Kemp

August 7, 1982 - May 13, 2015

AARON PHILLIP RANSON KEMP, AGE 32

And a resident of Kenner died early Wednesday May 12, 2015 at his home. He was a former resident of Washington Parish and a 2000 graduate of Franklinton High School. He later attended the University of Louisiana-Monroe and was presently enrolled in the Doctorate program of Walden University. Aaron was a United States Army veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom and later served as an Army Intelligence officer and instructor. He enjoyed poetry and was an artist. Aaron also enjoyed handling snakes and reptiles and had many as pets.

Survived by:

Wife: Michelle Sahuque-Kemp of Kenner

Step-son: Reese Hamilton-Patrick O'regan

Parents: Phillip Kemp and Peggy Ranson Kemp of Pine

2 Sisters and Brothers in law: Kelly and Robert Ballard of the Oak Grove Community, Malory and Craig Martin of Foxworth, MS

Nieces and Nephews: Summer Ballard, Trase Ballard, Briley Martin

Grandfather and Step-grandmother: Rodney Ranson and Roberta Ranson

3 Aunts and an Uncle: Vickie Honaker, Vickie Skillestad, Gay and Coonie Gomez

Also numerous cousins and friends

He was preceded in death by his grandmother Mixie Ranson, grandparents Nadine and Lamar Kemp and uncle Fran Honaker.

A Celebration of Aaron's life will be held from 4 pm until 6 pm Friday May 15th at his parents' home, 29279 Hwy. 1070, Franklinton, LA.

In lieu of flowers, the family prefers donations to Doggoneexpress.com, an organization that provides service dogs to wounded veterans and others, or by contacting James Slocum at Whitney Bank.
