“ Sometimes we don't understand God's plan for our life and perhaps we never will but the one thing that is certain is that HE always has his arms around us to comfort us. Alex brought great joy to so many of here. As evidenced by the out pouring of support at his wake, he touched so many lives - what a testament to his life. Praying for you, Jordan and the rest of the family.

“ Alex and I were Bestfriends since elementary, I could tell him anything and I knew he wouldn't tell anyone. He was the only one I could ever trust. Me & Alex eventually fell inlove our ninth grade year, I'll never forget our memories we had together. He will always hold the key to my heart even though he's gone. I hate that he had to leave us so soon. We love and miss you Alex. Rest in peace.

“ My heart breaks for the family of young Alex. My thoughts and prayers will continue for you for some time. My connection tracks back to grandmother Janice, and great grandfather, Merle, who was the brother of my stepfather, Maurice. I can only pray for peace and understanding of a life taken so young.
