“ To family of their loved one , Our Prayers Are with you all , It's are losing someone so dear to you all , no one knows how it affects the family , until you loss one yourself . This is the hardest to accept in your life and you never want to accept . We are suppose to be the ones ourselves, that they are suppose to be putting away , but today , we are losing more of our children then , ourselves . . The times are harder when you have to let your child go , but we will meet them again soon one day . May God bless all of you and give one all strength that you all may need . God bless you and you all are in our prayers, and so sorry for you lost . We love you all . Lisa and Jimmy Gerald
