“ My family met Angelica at Hatfield grocery months before and a bond was formed, she would caution my husband who was due for lung cancer surgery and she was a positive inspiration for us. We miss her greatly and we are glad of the memories we share.

“ Dear Sweet Angela, I know you are missed right now. That smile of light that shown on your face was all the proof in The World, that you are an Angel. I am sending big Love to your family right now. There was another beautiful soul who shares your special day and that is Princess Diana. May all those sweet souls met you at The Gates and held you so tightly to Welcome you home.
