

Ann Crain Harris

August 4, 1946 - March 16, 2023

ANN CRAIN HARRIS, AGE 76

And a resident of Franklinton passed away Thursday evening March 16, 2023 at St. Tammany Parish Hospital. She was born in Bogalusa on August 4, 1946 to the late Lavon Crain and Nina DeWolf Crain of the Stateline Community. Ann loved horses and was an avid horseback rider. She and her family had trail horses for over 25 years and rode in areas throughout Louisiana and the southeastern United States, often camping out and experiencing God's beautiful nature on horseback. She was an excellent cook, especially her delicious gumbo, and enjoyed hosting friends and family for meals and gatherings. Ann also loved to garden and read novels.

Survived by:

Husband of 49 years: John T. Harris, Jr.

3 Sons and a Daughter in law: Paul Harris and Laura Canfield,
Terry and Jennifer Harris,
Robert Harris

Grandchildren and Spouses: Phelan and Daniel Hause,
Kiersten Harris and Malachi Stogner,

Jordan and Bethanie Galloway

Great-grandson: Rhett Galloway

Brothers and Sisters in law: Michael L. and Emma Crain,

“ Crain and Harris families,

I am so sad about Ann. She was such a warm, friendly and friendly and sweet lady. Plus she smiled a lot and always had a chuckle in her voice.

Johnny, I'm so sorry to hear this. Ann was a good friend in high school - pretty, smart, considerate. I always enjoyed spending time with her. Although we haven't been in close touch, I have been her Facebook friend for a number of years and enjoyed reading her posts. Please accept my sincerest sympathy and good wishes. Wilton Corkern
