“ Peggy, I am so sorry about your Daddy. I had no idea until I read the paper. Even though we don't get to see each other much or talk like we used to just know that I'm still here for you just a phone call away. Your family is in my prayers.

“ Peggy and George, We were very sorry to hear of your loss. Our thoughts and prayers will continue to be with you and your family. This is a poem that I found and thought of you.

I find an old photograph and see your smile. As I feel your presence anew, I am filled with warmth and my heart remembers love.

I read an old card sent many years ago during a time of turmoil and confusion. The soothing words written then still caress my spirit and bring me peace.

I remember who you used to be the laughter we shared and wonder what you have become. Where are you now, Where did you go, When the body is left behind and the spirit is released to fly?

Perhaps you are the morning bird singing joyfully at sunrise, or the butterfly that dances so carelessly on the breeze or the rainbow of colors that brightens a stormy sky or the fingers of afternoon mist delicately reaching over the mountains or the final few rays of the setting sun lighting up the skies edging the clouds with a magical glow.

I miss your being but I feel your presence, In whatever form you choose to take, however you now choose to be.

Your spirit has become for me a guardian angel on high guiding, advising, and watching over me.

I remember you. You are with me and I am not afraid.

“ Peggy & Family I'm so sorry for the loss of your father. Just remember he may not be with you in person but he is forever with you in spirit. Cherish the memories you have with him. I know the emptiness you feel inside when losing a dad, lean on the Lord for guidance and understanding. I'm remembering you in my prayers.
