

Audrey Thomas

September 25, 1930 - April 30, 2020

JUNNIE AUDREY THOMAS, AGE 89

And a resident of Thomas died Thursday night April 30, 2020 at her home. She worked at the Washington Parish Health Unit for 35 years, many of those years as the supervisor of both the Franklinton and Bogalusa offices. Audrey was a member of Stateline United Pentecostal Church. She loved traveling and often arranged bus trips for people, which she always said allowed them to leave all their troubles behind. Audrey had been on an Alaskan cruise and visited Washington, D.C. and many other areas of the country. She liked working around her house, always keeping busy. She lived a good happy life and cherished the time spent with her grandchildren.

Survived by:

2 Daughters and a Son in law: Tita Taylor of Tylertown,
Gwendolyn and Marvin Jones of Thomas

2 Sons and Daughters in law: Craig and Peggy Wilkins,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. My condolences to the entire family. I worked with Miss Audrey for quite a few years through the Office of Public Health and always enjoyed my time with her. She was always professional and quite a card at times with such a sense of humor. She was always concerned with the interests of health in her community and had a dedication to the health units and public health.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Mrs. Audrey was a very special lady. Brent and I still talk about all the funny things she would say when they worked together at the Health Unit. They loved to tease each other and give one another a hard time. We both thought very highly of her, and we know she’s in a better place now. We will keep your family in our prayers.
