“ In 1970 Emile and I & my 2 boys moved to Kenner, La. I felt so alone. One day a young couple mived in next door and we became close friends . Emile and I became the God parents of a son they had later.

I just LOVED that family. We stayed friends but didnt get to visit as often, but the love for this family never ended ifir me. I will Always love the .memories of thiss family and i will miss her so much.

Cheri. And Butch i am so so sorry for the loss of your mother that you loved so much and toik care of. As the tears roll down my face, i will always remember that girl with that special voice, one that i can still here.
