

Barbara Hughey McMillan

August 30, 1935 - October 15, 2025

BARBARA HUGHEY MCMILLAN, AGE 90

And a resident of Franklinton passed away Wednesday morning October 15, 2025 at her home following a lengthy illness. She was born on August 30, 1935 and grew up in Smithdale, Mississippi before attending Louisiana State University. Barbara received her Bachelor's Degree in Home Economics and later obtained a Master's Degree from Auburn University. She and her husband, Dr. Aubrey "Mac" McMillan, moved to Franklinton in the early 1960s to begin his career as a veterinarian and to raise their family. Together, they were charter members of Hillcrest Baptist Church, where she taught Adult Women's Sunday School classes for over 50 years. When she ultimately retired from teaching, Barbara was recognized by her church family, receiving a plaque for her dedicated service. She was a longtime member of the Franklinton Woman's Club and the Waverly Club. Barbara was a truly dedicated mother and grandmother, often cooking delicious family meals and attending all their activities and sporting events. She traveled many times to Austin, Texas to spend time with her family there. Barbara was a loving wife to Dr. "Mac" for over 50 years and a caring mother and grandmother that cherished all the time the family spent together.

Survived by:

2 Daughters and Sons in law: Marilyn McMillan McGahan and Robert McGahan of Austin,
Brooke McMillan Moody and Scott Moody of Franklinton

3 Grandchildren and a Spouse: Caroline and Daniel Lindahl,
Emily McGahan,
Reagan Moody

She was preceded in death by an infant daughter Ann McMillan, her husband Aubrey Lee McMillan, parents Britte Hughey and Norma Williams Hughey, father in law and mother in law Ulyss and Alta McMillan and other family members.

The family wishes to express a sincere thank you to her compassionate caregivers for their loving support during the last several years, Ruby Tate, Donna Sanders, Thannie Conerly, Toni Williams, Barbara Bickham.

Barbara will be laid to rest next to her husband in Ellis Cemetery following a private family ceremony.

In lieu of flowers, the family prefers memorial donations to Hillcrest Baptist Church (2201 Washington Street, Franklinton, LA 70438).

Tribute Wall

SB

“ Susan Barber lit a candle in memory of Barbara Hughey McMillan

Susan Barber - October 19, 2025 at 06:36 PM

DS

“ Your kindness touched my heart. It was a gift to care for someone so special. My daughter and I cherished the moments we had together with you Ms. Barbara. With love from Donna and Miracle Sanders.

Donna Sanders - October 17, 2025 at 04:32 PM

JB

“ I am so saddened to learn of “Miss” Barbara’s passing. She was so kind to me over the years especially sharing and guiding me in the loss of my first child (something she had also experienced). My thoughts and prayers are extended to each of you. May God grant each of you peace and comfort.

Judy Rollins Burch - October 17, 2025 at 10:16 AM

TO

“ I loved Mrs Barbara just like a family member. She was like a sweet aunt to me. It was my pleasure to be able to serve y'all for so many years. Thank y'all for sharing your dear Mother with me.

Toni L Oswald - October 16, 2025 at 02:31 PM

SM

Barbara was a wonderful Sunday School teacher. She was concerned about each member of her class. The lessons she taught were full of Christian love as well as giving us principles to apply in our daily lives. Thank you Barbara for all the insight you shared with us. May God continue to bless your family.

Sue Macias - October 16, 2025 at 09:51 PM

ML

I loved your mother

marguerite. lipani - October 17, 2025 at 05:38 PM

CH

Brooke, I am sorry for your loss. Mothers are one of God's gifts that lives on as long as we are here. You know she is at peace with our Lord. Carolyn Hughes

Carolyn Hughes - October 20, 2025 at 09:34 AM

DW

Dear Marilyn & Brooke, I am sorry for your loss. I just loved caring for Ms Barbara, she was a 1 of a kind, a true gem. I'm keeping both of you special ladies in my prayers. Donna Warren donna warren - November 10, 2025 at 08:52 PM