“ As I've already been reading from all of the previous comments, Aunt Gayle was a sweet soul never without a smile. It's obvious she will be deeply missed by many. She certainly will be by me! I hate that y'all are having to go through this. I pray for God's comfort during this hard time. I love y'all!

“ My oh my!! So many precious memories of my aunt Gayle!! One of my fondest memories as a child and an adult was if there was a clover patch in the yard you would find aunt Gayle looking for a 4 leaf clover. Finding a 4 leaf clover to me was like finding a needle in a haystack. She would always find one for sure if not more. Me...no...never but it was fun trying. She was always such a pleasant aunt and I have so many pleasant memories. She let me and my daughter mov in with her and stay for months. My oh my!!! So many fond memories. She was such a great blessing in my life and an influence by the life she lived. I'm sure that her influence has made me the Christian and woman I am today. I wished I would have told her that but one day hopefully in heaven if they have clover patches I'll tell her then while we are looking for 4 leaf clovers. Love you dearly. Will miss you terribly. Love Margaret 🥰❤️
