“ The apostle Paul wrote at the end of his life that he had fought the good fight. No one embodied this more than Barry. He was a good man and I am honored to have shared in his life. Our thoughts and prayers go to Paulette and the kids. I believe that God has a special place in heaven for people like Barry. I also believe that one day when I am joined with him in heaven that he will greet me, know me and we can laugh and share some old times together. RIP Barry Crain.
