

Ben Morgan

December 21, 1933 - April 9, 2024

BENNY "BEN" MORGAN, AGE 90

a resident of Virginia Beach, Virginia passed away peacefully early Tuesday morning April 9, 2024. He was born and raised in Washington Parrish, Louisiana, before leaving high school to join the US Navy in 1952. Before he left, he married his high school sweetheart, Christine, to whom he was married for 71 years. While she stayed in Stoney Point for his first tour of duty in Hawaii, eventually Christine joined him in California and their journey together as a Navy family began. Over the course of his 30 year career, Ben served during the Korean Conflict and survived a tour of duty during the Vietnam War. He also served on four Naval vessels, including the USS Lexington. Upon retirement, Ben and Chris built their farm, affectionately known as Homeport, the site of the infamous tractor rides. However, his retirement was short lived due to his incessant need to stay busy and he took a civil service position at Stennis Space Center. After 14 years, he ventured into his second retirement.

Ben was actively involved in his churches wherever he was stationed and embraced the importance of missionary work from Vietnam to Central America. He supported the First Baptist Church of Franklinton in their mission work and was a dedicated deacon.

“ Benny was a high school classmate of mine and to be honest he was probably the best one of the bunch. Not but three guys left now. I followed his career and was always proud of the way he served. One does not find very many men as true to their calling as he was. Finley Corkern

“ I grew up at FBC in Franklinton and Mr. Ben was the sweet man who always greeted me going to "big church" with a smile and a program for the sermon. We will certainly miss him.

“ I'm sorry to hear of the passing of Ben. I loved him and him dearly. He was my mom's first cousin (Melba Fussell). I was a young child when he left for the Navy, but I do recall seeing him in his uniform and thought how tall and handsome he was! I didn't get to know him until about 20 years ago when we connected through the family. After that, we stayed in touch all the time and saw each other nearly every time I went home to Enon. He was such a Godly man, and I'm so thankful I had time with him. "Go rest high on the mountain, your work here on Earth is done..."
