“ I am so very sorry I did not know Ms. Betty had died. She was such a lovely person and I was privileged to know her and to share with her in our Sunday School class. She always had a smile, never complained, and was happy to greet every visitor. It is wonderful to know that she is in a far better place than us. I know that God delighted in welcoming her to her new home! I wish I had known so I could attend the funeral and tell her family how special she was to our SS family. We will miss her.....God bless you all.
