“ Scharlene and family, you all have my deepest sympathy. You all are in my heart, my thoughts and my prayers. May God give you all the love, comfort, strength and courage to get through this difficult time. Billy was a very warmhearted, loving and caring person. May God Bless You All Always. “ I sure am going to miss Billy.. He is my father in law and he was a great man.. He and his wife looked out for me when I was younger and raised my son for a long time until I got my mind straight and had NO problem doing it.. He loved his grand kids and his step kids very much.. He was a great man and now he is in heaven being an amazing angel. Father in law you maybe gone but never forgotten.. I love you
