“ I have had some wonderful conversations with Billy. He would come by the church to donate items for VBS, block parties, anything we needed Billy would do his best to help the church minister to this community. Billy will be missed but we will meet again one day. Our prayers are with his family.

“ We will surely miss Billy, especially his soul winning smile, triumphant love, and devotion to his Lord and family. Memories that will always be fresh in my mind are the countless hours we spent trying to catch the elusive red fish and speckled trout. It was an honor to know you and be your friend. Love.... (-)

“ What we'll remember the most about Billy, was his obvious love for his mom. It was so sweet to watch him as he sat next to her each Sunday in church. He always greeted us with a smile and a hardy hand shake. He will be missed. Much love and prayer to his family from our family. Cheryl & Henry

“ We miss Billy very much, while I was out greeting the Church family on Sunday I could see Billy park his car and start walking toward the Church, He would always have a smile on his face and a great handshake, and on his way of of church he would always come by me and say "Emmet, have a great week." The last visit I had with Billy, he said pray for God's will, not mine

“ I will remember two things about Billy. First, He told me how he came to know Jesus Christ, and I saw Billy serve Him humbly and without complaint. Second, I will remember that Billy loved his family. This was evident as he grew a beard and did not shave it off until his son-in-law returned from military duty overseas. We're keeping your family in our prayers at FBC Marrero.

“ Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace. Psalm 37:37

My Daddy was the most generous man I ever knew. Generous with his time, his affection and his worldly goods. After the Lord saved him, he enjoyed giving even more and did so in the faith of and to the glory of God. He gave me many things,..all the worldly things we need as children on this earth,. (room & board as he called it) and lots of luxuries too. He gave loud, noisy things to his granddaughter, Olivia,.. he thought that was funny. He gave me love, support and hugs without end. He gave me to my husband in marriage. He gave his time in prayer for me and my family. But the very best gift my Daddy ever gave me is that he lived so obviously for the Lord his God and walked with Him on this earth in such a way that I have the complete and utter peace of knowing without a doubt that my Daddy is with his precious Lord and Saviour right now and I know that I will see him again and we will spend eternity together praising the One Who gave His life on Calvary for us! I look forward to it and by God's grace,.. I will give the same gift to my beautiful Olivia. But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for He shall receive me. Psalm 49:15

“ It was truly a pleasure and an honor to work with Bill. I loved his enthusiasm for his work and his desire to constantly seek better ways to do things. He was helpful and kind to those of us fortunate enough to know him. Our very own "donut man" delighted his colleagues at our New Orleans-area meetings. We will miss him.

“ I have enjoyed working with Bill in the FDCHFP. I found him to be a generous man. He was always willing to learn and able to adjust to new situations with grace. I also saw that he had the ability to inspire others and assist others in their desire to be the best they could be. I will truly miss him.

“ I remember that Billy loved Fords. When I was learning to drive he let me drive his white Ford out of our driveway, up Avenue B and around the block. It meant so much to me that he trusted me to drive his new car. What he did helped to build my confidence and I've never forgotten it. He gave me some "My Sin" perfume one year for my birthday. It was a bit strong for a young teen, but he thought enough to go out and choose it himself. (I think he chose it because the bottle was so pretty and it had a little black cat attached to it.) That made me feel so special. I kept that bottle of perfume for years.

He was my brother in Christ. I'm encouraged by God's Word which says, Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints. Psalm 116:15

“ All of my memories of Uncle Billy are fond. Even when he was far away in the North Sea, I thought of him as very adventurous. I benefited from his generosity as I rode his horses and go-carts, swam in his various pools(There always was a pool!), and just getting to hang around and play with his girls. His laugh is the thing that I will remember most.
