“ I still have a scar on my elbow that happened when Billy Ray, Keith, Clint, Andy Barber and I were trying to scare Pam and Sherrie with a snake that Billy Ray had killed. We were burning a plastic bottle over a fire pit when he pulled the snake out with a fishing line and everyone jumped knocking the burning plastic bottle into the air, spraying flaming plastic on the ones nearest to the fire. The blemish on my arm always reminds me of the family roots that I have in Washington Parish, Louisiana. RIP Billy Ray,

“ We watched our boys grow up together. Before that we watched you and Bryan grow up hunting and fishing. You were a good father husband and provider for your family. You will be missed greatly. Knowing you will be watching from above guiding your family through this time reflecting on their lives and how you impacted them. Rest easy Billy Ray you have finished your work on earth . Now you can enjoy life in heaven. What can be said is JOB WELL DONE. Rest easy.
