“ Aunt Mary and Dennis, What can I say, but to tell you how much I will miss Bruce. He was not only my best cousin, but my best friend. I will miss our calls and catching up on family. I loved him as a brother. Just know that we will see him again for he is celebrating in Heaven with our Heavenly Father as well as his earthly father and my daddy. You all are in my prayers, I love you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss! Bruce was a very great man. We always requested him at The House of Seafood. It won't be the same without him there. We truly loved him! We will miss him greatly! If I would have known about the funeral, I would have been there to show my respect.
You all will be in our thoughts and prayers during this time.

“ Bruce will greatly be missed by so many friends, family and loved ones. Life will never be the same. In my mind he is still at home in Pine and it will take me so long to finally convince myself that he is not there. He is in a better, happier place but that still does not make it hurt any less right now. My heart goes out to his mom that has had to endure the loss of both her husband and son within 6 weeks time. We love you Bruce.
Love, Laura

“ Having Bruce for a friend has been a wonderful experience I will treasure. He was a 'great ' travel companion, who always had to call home to make sure everything was 'OK'. Friends with these qualities are rare. I was lucky to have known him. Lee Knepper
