“ Hey Cameron,
I know you're not going to see this, but I wanted to say a few things anyway. You were truly amazing. You were loved by so many people, and you made such a difference in everyone's lives just by being yourself. Even though I didn't know you as well as I would have liked, I could always see the kindness and light you brought into every room.
I still remember asking you to dance, and even though you ended up dancing with someone else, it was just one small moment in a lifetime of good memories you made with so many people. I'm glad you enjoyed the cookies I gave you the other day. It made me happy to see you smile, because your smile was always so bright and warm. You had a way of making everyone laugh and feel included, as they belonged.
You made the world a better place just by being in it, and we're all going to miss you, bud. I hope you know how much you meant to everyone around you, and how much you're going to be remembered. Thank you for all the joy and laughter you brought. Rest easy, Cameron. You'll never be forgotten.
