“ I lost one of my dearest lifelong friend. Will miss her so much. We could share anything and we were always there for each other. I know our loss is Heaven's Gain and I know we will meet again my dear friend. Words cannot express how I already miss you.

“ My heart is with you, Todd, and all Kak's family. And, my prayers. She was family to me from a very early age. ('Think about three.) I guess I didn't fully appreciate her until my teenage years. She was my 'older sister', and when she married Marvin, he became another 'older brother'. I loved her exactly like a sister, and never forget how sweet and caring she was. A perfect older sister. I was blessed to visit with her during the Fair, Todd ... but missed seeing you. I even saw your dad at the FHS gathering on Friday during the Fair. I will pray for comfort for each of you, but know you are okay with her departure because of her condition. If only your heart would cooperate. I send you my love along with my prayers...and will make a point to find you next Fair I attend.
