“ Grandma Ladner was the Greatest Grandmother a grandson could ever have, bar none. I envy her in a way because she, since last night, has been walking the streets of Gold, talking with my Grandpa L.D. Ladner, her son, Conrad, that got struck by lightning when he was just a lad, and most of all, JESUS CHRIST who makes all things possible. But since I made the same choice Grandma did(excepting Jesus as my Savior)I too will be able to enjoy the many wonderful things she's experiencing right now. I long to see Grandpa and of course Grandma, but most of all to see the nail-scarred hands and feet and the pierced side and crown of thorn prints in the head of my savior, Jesus Christ. As the composer once said, "What a Day that will be, when my Savior I shall see, When He takes me by the hand and leads me through the promise land, what a day, glorious day that will be". Good Night Grandma - I'll see you tomorrow - one day!
