“ Our condolences are with you and your family at this time. We lost our 16 year old son and his girlfriend in an automobile accident 20 years ago. Time heals the wound but, the scar remains. Do not be forced to do something your not comfortable with and take things slowly. Pace yourself tomorrow will come as horrible as it seems at the moment. I could write you a book of the do's and don't, this is not the place. Just know we understand what your going through and might encounter in the days to come. Please feel free to call upon us if there's anything we can do or just talk. God Bless you and your Family 985-515-3240 Troy & Brenda Wilson Mt. Hermon, La.

“ Parents of Cayle

I am so sorry for your loss. He was such a fun spirited always smiling young man. I work in the cafeteria and usually Cayle went to the other side to check through for lunch. He came to my side and I told him I loved his name. I always look for unusually spelled names. Loved Cayle. So cool. The few times he came on my side it was always "Oh Cayle the guy with the cool name. Enjoyed seeing that beautiful smile.

People never know what to say. He was such a sweet young man. I wanted to share that little part with you.

My heart just hurts for your loss.

Caymen I will pray for your whole family. I'm so sorry.

What a wonderful testimony this young man leaves behind,,,,accepting Jesus in his heart! I have never lost a child and I have no idea what you are suffering but we serve one who does. I pray you will find comfort in the loving and merciful arms of Jesus.*

Prayers will continue and we will remember you all in our weekly devotion on Wednesday.
