

Charles Patrick Fagan

November 2, 1947 - February 5, 2010

CHARLES PATRICK FAGAN, AGE 62 and a resident of Independence died at 11:30 pm Friday February 5, 2010 at North Oaks Medical Center in Hammond. Charlie was a U.S. Army veteran during the Vietnam Era and worked as a mechanic and in construction.

The family is so thankful for the support of his fellowship of friends who helped Charlie overcome troubles in his life and they are very proud of the family bonds that have been strengthened and shared during the last several years.

Mr. Fagan recently rekindled his love for painting and his artistic expressions are now adorning the homes of family and friends. Charlie was a caring friend to those who needed it most and forever a loving husband, father, and grandfather.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ Charlie, The fellowship will truly miss you as a whole, esp. me! You have been a straight shooter & one thing I adore about you is you always "Tell it Like it is" (or how you see it, lol) your honesty has been an inspiration in my life! Thanks for being a part of my recovery. Love, Kat
