

Charlotte Lucille Fisher

November 15, 1954 - June 15, 2020

CHARLOTTE LUCILLE FISHER, AGE 65

And a resident of Franklinton died Monday night June 15, 2020 at St. Tammany Parish Hospital. She worked as a cashier at numerous gas stations and convenience stores in town for many years, including Big Boy's and Market Max. Charlotte was a devoted mother and grandmother to her family and loved taking care of her young great-grandchildren. She often helped care for her large family, including many of her nieces and nephews. She was a hard worker around the house, including taking care of her yard and gardening. Charlotte loved painting and watching the butterflies around her home. She enjoyed dancing while listening to her favorite music. Charlotte was an animal lover and had many beloved pets through the years.
