“ I am so very sad to know that Charlotte has left her family at such a young age. She fought long and hard, as per God's instructions. He, in turn, has welcomed her into His house and into the open arms of His son, Jesus. She is resting in peace. My daily prayers will now shift to her family...that they live in peace and solace of knowing she is with her Lord and Savoir. She was cherished by her friends and family, and from what I know of her, all was justified. Charlotte's valiant fight for life affected so many. How many people did she send to their knees in prayer? We won't ever know the number, but God certainly does. She accomplished what He set forth for her, and then He called her home. How blessed she was. May God continue to bless her family and friends, and, may the peace of Christ Jesus rest in their hearts.
