“ Such a sweet soul. When I was a child, my mother was involved in an accident and wasn't able to take care of us small children. Christine came and lived with us for a couple of weeks to care for my mother and us small children. Both of my parents cared deeply for Christine and Johnny. I know that heaven had many open arms to welcome her home.

I'm just now finding out that she's gone. Steve and I are heartbroken. We loved her so very much. All of the Friday nights spent playing cards, smoking and drinking coffee, those were the days. You will be sorely missed.
