“ To the entire family of CINDY POLKEY May the hand of God guide you each down the path heals your soul your heart and thought of memories you have made my memory of Rhodes sitting on the bae line cheering our little men trying to make it through the the sun roasting and begging for a slight breeze to come our way. Then the thought pleading to go home and wash those uniforms and get everything in order for the next day to the process all over again. CINDY will be missed greatly. The family are in my thoughts and prayers.
