“ So many wonderful memories going all the way back to our days at Washington Bank and many since then. I'll always treasure the fact that God placed us in each other's lives. I will miss our frequent texts, which we've had to resort to in the turmoil of present day. But I know that I know that I know I will certainly see you again! Until then, breathe deeply and enjoy all the beauty of Heaven and totally free of all pain!! I love you my sweet friend. Renee
