

Curtis Ray Mixon

July 5, 1972 - April 19, 2016

CURTIS RAY MIXON, AGE 43

And a resident of the Amite area died early Tuesday morning April 19, 2016 at his home. He was born on July 5, 1972. Curtis loved his family and was known as “Uncle Coot” to many. His passion was music and he found solace in playing his guitar. Curtis is remembered by many as “Clown”, a throwback to his rodeo clown days when he used his natural humor to entertain many. But Curtis was happiest when behind a microphone announcing a rodeo or horse show.

Sister and Brother in law: Amy Mixon Wall and George Wall of Kentwood

Pallbearers are his nephews Kelby Lea, Kelsey Lea, Kyle Lea, Caleb Hendry, Jordan Hendry and special friend Ben Carrier.

“ I am so saddened to hear of the passing of CR. I never had the pleasure of meeting him in person, but we shared many laughs and wonderful conversations online. He was a pleasure to talk with, always intelligent, funny and respectful. I was looking forward to meeting the "OL Coot" when I went on vacation this summer.

My sincere condolences to his family. God is getting a Good Cowboy.

“ I haven't seen Curtis in a few years, saw him and his daughter at Wal-Mart in Amite. We went to school together at Valley Forge Academy. I remember one day he showed up to school with his head shaved because Mrs. Hanks (our teacher) had been pulling his hair when he would do something wrong. This had been going on for some time so he started getting his hair cut shorter and shorter. Finally it was BALD. Mrs. Hanks just laughed and reached out and grabbed his ear. Yeah I will miss ole Curtis. I guess we just take too many things for granted. Tell your friends and loved ones how much they mean to you before the time comes when you can't.
