To my dear aunt and uncle,my heart bleeds for our loss. I truly have always loved your family, I have been praying for God to strengthen you in this time that we all have to face. Our strength is in God . Love you and praying. While writing this , it was like I could hear this quote that "God gives his biggest battles to "his" strongest soldiers.

Aunt Shirley, Uncle Jerry, Annette,and children; I have prayed ever since the day I received the news of sickness. We always know, ( For this we know that ALL things work for the good of them who love the Lord, to them who are called according to his plan.) God has a plan. We don't know what. We just trust that good will come forth and we will endure to the end. Y'all have faced much! God will strengthen y'all to face the coming days. Love you all!
