

Daniel "Candy Man" Learned

November 10, 1937 - July 30, 2017

DANIEL FRANKLIN "CANDY MAN" LEARNED, AGE 79

And a resident of Mt. Hermon died Sunday morning July 30, 2017 at Riverside Medical Center. He was raised in Illinois but had been a resident of Washington Parish for nearly 40 years, where he worked in road construction for many years and later became well known through his work at local hardware stores and service stations. Daniel was ordained a deacon at Sunny Hill Baptist Church and was an active member of Mt. Hermon Baptist Church and its Faith Riders motorcycle club. He collected pocket knives and belt buckles and would dress as a rodeo clown to help out and visit with people at the Washington Parish Free Fair. He was a servant at heart and loved to do things for people, later in life he began handing out candy to those he met, and became known as the "Candy Man". He had a special place in his heart for his pet Miniature Pinscher Lady.
