“ Dear Bilbo and Tracy and your families and Lee, Cindy and Theresa and your families,
I am so saddened by Debbie's death on Friday. Her struggle was long and laborious but her strength was gone. I know that each of you will have many memories of Debbie with your families. One of my favorite was working with her to make her an outfit for your wedding, Tracy and another was more recently visiting with Debbie and Billy at the hospital last summer and her talking about their disappointment in not being able to make it to Ohio for your wedding, Bilbo. So glad you and Holly were able to make it down here for a visit.
May you crest in peace, Debbie Carrier as you are reunited with your beloved Billy and your mom, Nelda.

“ Tracy and Billy, Jr., you may not remember me, but Tracy's mother was my first cousin [Tracy's grandfather, Spurgeon Stevens, was my uncle]. I am so sorry to hear of Deborah's passing -- so soon after losing both her mother and her husband. My thoughts and prayers are certainly with you at this time.
