

Destyn Alyssa Freeman

April 4, 1995 - January 29, 2025

April 4, 1995 Destyn Alyssa Freeman came kicking and screaming into the world announcing her arrival amidst the joy and celebration. Brand-new, low mileage, no return policy or warranty. But why would you need such, for she was perfect in every way. Perfect from head to toe, but what her tomorrows would hold we could not know. Perhaps had we known we would have her only 29 years, the celebration would have been much more sober. Making each moment, each day count, creating precious memories while afforded opportunity. But is not that what we should be doing regardless. Destyn has reminded us of how fragile life is and the uncertainty of tomorrow.

She will never see her daughter adorned to walk down the aisle
Nor will the world ever again, be graced with her smile
She will never hear the story, of her son's new found best friend
We will never hear her laughter ringing in our ears, ever again
One of a kind, unique like no other
A daughter, a granddaughter, a sister, a Mother

She is survived by her father Russel Freeman, her grandmother Faye Branch, Grandmother Mary Freeman. Brothers Jacob Freeman, Luke Freeman, and Kaden Jones and Sisters Lillie Freeman and Kinsley Jones. She leaves three beautiful children Jaxon Freeman 9 years old, Russel Williams 5 years old, and Emilee Williams 4 years old. And a host of Uncles, Aunts, and cousins.

Destyn was preceded in death by her mother Terri Jones, Grandfather Jimmy Branch, Grandfather Clarence Freeman
