“ To the family of my classmate, Diane. I am so sorry to hear of and to read the obituary of your dear mother and grandmother. I remember Diane in school as a quiet, reserved, but kind and caring young lady. May your loss be softened by the wonderful memories she has left with each of you and may the peace of Christ Jesus rest within your hearts.

“ My deepest sympathy to your family. I knew Diane when we rode in the Sheriff's Posse. My oldest daughter use to idolize her, saying she wanted to grow up and dress and smell just like Ms. Diane. I am sorry about your loss.
