“ Dear Lynette and Dianne,

Your dad and husband will be greatly missed by us all! He was indeed a devoted father and husband! I remember being around Don and seeing his smile and laughter bringing joy to any occasion. I can't ever remember a time when he was not smiling. He was such a good man and my heart is heavy that he is no longer here. I pray that you and your mom in the coming days can have moments of joy and peace remembering the good times and feel blessed that God gave you this amazing man to be a part of your life for so long!

Love,
Christy and Bobby DeHaye

“ Lynette and Ms. Dianne,

I know that words cannot truly comfort the loss you are currently feeling, but just know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. I know from all the stories you have shared Lynette, that your dad was a devoted father and husband. I remember the time you and your dad came over for boiled crawfish and he was gentleman enough to not criticize my husbands cooking, for he forgot to add salt to the pot! Needless to say, those were some bland tasting crawfish! I hope you both find comfort in the great memories you do have with him.
