“ My precious Aunt! Last summer we came down to be with Janice and Richard while he was hospitalized with major health issues. No one could understand why we just up and drove 10 hours for 'nothing.' As it turned out be my last visit with you, I told you I don't always do funerals but I'm a strong believer in spending time together in the here and now. You told me that's what matters. I did get to have a last word with you Friday night when Janice put the phone to your ear and I got to say 'I love you' one last time. Rest in peace, Aunt Doris. And give my Daddy a hug for me.
