“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ I was saddened to hear of your loss of a very special lady. I wish I could have attended the funeral, but I could not. May God be with you all, especially Mr. Pete, who loves her so very much. She is beyond all pain and hurt and living in a home not made with human hands; in this we can be grateful for her. Reggie Simmons

“ Every time I hear (or see) that someone I've grown up with or went to school with and here who drove us to school on the bus -- that one of their parents have went to meet our Good Lord.... I have a moment of sadness and joy. Joy to know they see what we long to see (and will one day) -- Sadness that they are no longer here with us making memories.

And yet "Thankful" we do have our MEMORIES!!!
