“ I am Erica's step daughter and when she past away it took a part of my heart out and it will not be filled for a long. I do not understand why she had to go so soon it's been 365 days since I saw hear. It seems like yesterday. She had such a big heart. She just had to have a family and nice a kichen. She was like a dream come true I will always be upset but I try not to cry because it makes her upset but it's hard not to. I wish she was still her.

“ erica always had time for animal rescue, even when she was very sick herself. it was inspiring to see her strength to be there for her family, especially her children. i loved to see "girly" pictures of her and the girls in matching makeup color, having fun. may the grief you are feeling now soon be replaced by wonderful memories

Erica was my birth mother. She died when i was at age five. don't really remember her because i was really young. But i still love and miss her with the memories that are given to me by my grandparents and other family members. I am also a(n) animal love. And it is nice to know that i have something similar with my mother.
