“ Dear family, and especially you, Franklin, as you struggle to deal with the void left when Evelyn was led through the Pearlie gates to meet her beloved Lord and Saviour. She will be there waiting when each of us makes that same journey a little while from now. She was certainly a very kind, sweet and beloved woman by all who knew her or belonged to her family. Though life may not seem as full without her, you must certainly realize how God has blessed you to enable you to recognize what a very loving presence she had and still has in your lives. It is well that God gives us such love and affection to those who mean so much to us, so we can truly mourn their passing in an appropriate way as to love their memories and hold on to them for the rest of our lives. May God give you the peace and contentment that Evelyn would want you to enjoy now, while you wait to see her again.

“ Franklin, just this morning we learned of Evelyn's passing. What a shock to us, as we were on vacation out west in New Mexico and never learned of your loss until today. Evelyn was such a sweet spirited lady that she is missed by all who knew her, and we are praying for God's peace for you after such a tremendous loss. May God continue to bless you and give you solace. We are praying for you. Reggie and Judy
