“ Dear Madonna and Family, What a joy it was to know "Miss Lee"! She was such a sweet and endearing person. Even though I have only known her since Shannon and Neils marriage, she always made me feel as if I had known her forever. I know you will miss her terribly. God Bless and keep you all. Betty S. “ Dear, dear Madonna...I was saddened to hear the news of the passing of your mother. Not so much for Ms. Fannie...I'm sure at ninety she knew where she was going and welcomed her journey home.

My heart aches for you, for Dennie and for your children; for Kerry, and for his family, and for all those loved ones left behind.

No matter what our age when we give our mother to God, there's a void in our heart. May you fill this void with the beautiful memories you've collected throughout your lifetime. How blessed you are to have had her for sooooo many years.

Please know that many prayers are being said for you and your family. May those prayers of all who care comfort and keep you in this hour of need. God Bless You.

“ Dear family, I am so sorry I was unable to get to the funeral home for visitation or for the service, but I want you to know that I feel a deep loss at the passing of your mother. She was so much like her mother, Aunt Annie, who was such a special part of my childhood -- one of the sweetest women who ever lived! They were not really our aunt and uncle, but we called them that because they were much older. Uncle Lucius was my dad's first cousin and we grew up in the community with them. Your dad, Fernie, was also our postman for many years. I always enjoyed talking with Fannie Lee when we would meet. I feel a close connection to your family. Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. There's no pain quite like losing your mother, no matter how old or how sick. Turn to the Good Lord. He will help you through it. You are in my prayers. Bob Ann Breland

“ Madonna and Dennie: I just learned of Ms. Fannie's death. I did not know she was even ill. I'm so sorry for your loss but I know you are comforted by her long life and your wonderful memories. I also know that your faith is strong and you rest assured that she is at peace. Our deepest sympathy to you both. Love, Bob and Judy

“ I am sorry for your loss. Our prayers are with you and your family. Birth is a beginning and death a destination And life is a journey: From childhood to maturity and youth to age; From innocence to awareness and ignorance to knowing; From foolishness to desecration and then perhaps to wisdom. From weakness to strength or from strength to weakness and often back again; From health to sickness and we pray to health again. From offense to forgiveness from loneliness to love from joy to gratitude from pain to compassion from grief to understanding from fear to faith. From defeat to defeat to defeat until looking backwards or ahead We see that victory lies not at some high point along the way but in having made the journey step by step a sacred pilgrimage. Birth is a beginning and death a destination And life is a journey; A sacred journey to life everlasting
