“I learned with deep regret of the passing of Mrs. Francis Ruth Greer. I grew up in the house across Cleveland Street from the Greers, and called her and Mr. Greer “Miss Francis Ruth” and “Mr. Warren”. Our families were very close friends, and we were all part of great neighborhood that included several other families – the Newmans, the Magees [Flower Shop], the Jenkinses [a block over on Main Street], and others. She was a wonderful person, and my life has been enriched by my upbringing near her. My heart goes out to Frances Warren, Marilyn and Holly at this difficult time in the passing of their dear mother.

“ Miss Ruthie was quite a competent and respectable legal and judicial secretary. Even the toughest lawyers knew not to try to get over on her. But she was really a sweet heart when she could be, and we will all remember and miss her. May God bless you and her memory in your hearts. Reggie
