“ My condolences to the Green Family, During this time of great sorrow, may it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. I too know the pain of losing someone dear. Even though our hearts are broken, rest assure that our Grand Creator cares about you personally (1 Peter 5:7) and can help you through this difficult time. Revelation 21:4 speaks of a time soon when God will do away with death forever. There will be no more sorrow, heartache, or pain. May your happy memories and sure scriptural hope comfort your hearts during this painful time.

“ Our thoughts and prayers have been with all of you over the past week. I had the pleasure of meeting all of the Green family at Danny and Anna's wedding. Papa Frank had a tremendous impact on Anna's life and especially Aidan's and Conor's. My nephews will be better people for having known and loved Papa Frank. I am so sorry for your loss.

All of our love and prayers, Tom and Laura

“Dear Patsy, and Family,
I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and concern for you and share with you that death isn't the end. This is evident in John 11 verses 11-14, 39, 43, and 44 where upon learning of Lazarus' death when he was on earth, Jesus said to those who were with him at the time: "Lazarus has fallen asleep I'm going to awaken him." To show that the dead are simply sleeping till the last day when the resurrection will take place, Jesus went to the grave where Lazarus was buried for four days, called him, and Lazarus came out alive and well. What Jesus did then, will happen again because he promises in John 5 verse 28 that when he's ruling the earth by means of God's Kingdom, he will call everyone from their grave to come out and they will. (Daniel 2:44) (Revelation/Apocalypse 20:6). So as you await Frank's resurrection, please take steps to heed Jesus' counsel in John 17 verse 3 to gain accurate knowledge of Jehovah and Jesus by studying the Bible with the Witnesses. In John 5 verse 39, Jesus explains that such study is crucial for anyone, who wishes to have endless life one day here on earth, which will become a paradise where you can be reunited with Frank again in a world free of VIOLENCE, OLD AGE, SICKNESS, and even DEATH etc... (Psalms 37: 9-11, 29), (Psalms 46: 8 and 9), (Isaiah 33:24), (Revelation 21:3, 4), (Job: 33:25).

“ Dear Patsy, Carrie, Rose, Anna, and Alice. Please accept my deepest sympathy. Some of my fondest memories of Franklinton are with the "Green Family." Listening to Frank's stories about fishing and being the principal at Enon, and other tales he would tell, always makes me feel warm. You girls were the light of his life, and I'm sure you knew it. “ I always thought of Uncle Frank as a gentle giant! I can remember thinking as a young child that he was the tallest person I had ever met. And as an adult I learned that he was taller in more ways than one--a great father and grandfather and a loving brother to my mom. What a good example he has set for the rest of us.
