“ Prayers & sympathy to all the family. Bro. Bennett was a good, kind hearted man who stood for what he believed. I will always remember the good times we had when he was our pastor & he & Ms. Carrie were good friends always willing to help in any way they could. He drove us several times to New Orleans when our son was having to go there for eye appointments because we couldn't drive in New Orleans. We were so blessed to have known he, Ms. Carrie & the children. Cherish the good times for he's now at rest & in peace with the Lord. His favorite song that the young people group sang at church was "If Jesus Is There." Well, Jesus is there with him. GOD BLESS
