“ Dearest Gary,

We have shared a lot of good memories through the years with you & Aunt Lee up on that hill. It's hard to imagine you not being there anymore. I'll never forget you playing your newest records for us on that console stereo system with the red panel lights on each end that blinked to the beat of the music. From classic Marvin Gay or Percy Sledge to the best in Southern Gospel music, you loved it all. I think some of us developed a love of all kinds of music from you. I will probably still continue to look for you at The Inspirations concert. A good life is not measured by what we own or have or bragging on all the "right" things that we do. But instead it is measured by, did we right our mistakes, forgive others as we have been forgiven & move forward with love in our hearts for all people & did we help someone along the way when we knew they needed it including lifting them up in spirit & in prayer as God intended. I only hope that you knew I lifted you then & I lift you now just as I know you did for me. Anyone that truly knew you, knows the love in your heart, especially for your three girls. You were so proud of each of them & loved them with all of your heart. Many many struggles you had in your lifetime. Most of them in the quietness of your own world. But you knew God was there with you & carried you through what most wouldn't survive. You were so much better than what you ever gave yourself credit for. I will miss that grin & laugh as only you could do. We are truly saddened by your passing but also rejoice with you to reach a time you have always dreamed of, to be reunited with your precious Mother, "our" Aunt Lee.

Sweet peace my Cousin,

Karla Temples Kendrick

“ Morgan, Amanda & Dana, I am so sorry about your dad, the few times I was around him he made me feel welcomed. My warmest memory of your dad was after Nolan and Morgan's wedding when he brought me to pick eggs, I was so excited I had never did that before, and he was just as excited to tell me about his babies. My prayers are with you and your families in this time of sorrow. I am sorry I will not be able to come to the services.
