“ Hymn Of Promise Hymn

In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree; In cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free! In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be, Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see. There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody; There's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me. From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery, Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see. In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity; In our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity, In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory, Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

“ tana, and family, so sorry for the loss of your mother. Sorry I cannot come to the viewing or funeral, as we well be out of town. You will be in my ever thought and prayers as loosing your mother is one of the hardest things to come to grips with. She is fine and so you will you be, she's in God's hands now and that should give you some peace. Fondly Audrey Pierce
