“ I lost one of my life's treasures. He was always smiling, laughing and enjoying life! Therefore everyone around him had an uplifting day. As Mary said, the twinkle in his eyes is something I will never forget. He worshiped his older brothers and sister. I know his children could have not been more loved, that was Rusty. I am sure his wife had his undying love and that he was devoted to her because again, that was Rusty. He was a great gift to us all and I will miss until the day I die, knowing that I will see him again.

“ Dear Edwards and King family members, The thing I remember most about Rusty was his sweet smile. That smile, special twinkle in his eyes, and country boy ways went along way to endearing him to everyone he met. The childhood memories I will cherish and know we will meet again in heaven. I am sorry that I cannot attend the funeral. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers.
