“ Though we didn't know H.E, well, we did know he was a kind christian man. There are far too few men of his caliber left on earth. May he rest in peace.

“ We are so saddened by the passing of Mr. H.E. He built our house, and we both just look around and think of him. He took such pride in everything that he did. He treated us fairly and honestly. We were so blessed to have him as our contractor. Because of that experience, we were even more blessed to have him as a friend. We will always remember him, also, as a song leader and a church officer. He will truly be missed, but not forgotten. Sincerely, Ernest and Cindy Verret

“ What a terrible loss! H.E. built our home in 1992. Because my husband and I are teachers, we were able to be there every step of the way and developed quite a relationship. As I look around our home, I am reminded of his careful attention to details and his dedication to the work he did. We could not have been more pleased with the job that he did. We will truly miss him.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Mr.H.E. was a very close friend of mine. We would wave at each other every morning on the highway when passing each other. He provided direction for me regarding buying my tractor and zero turn mower. My son, Andre', loved him also. He was a dear friend of my mother and father. Mr. H.E will be dearly missed by Walthall County in general. Many residents regarded him as the greatest house builder EVER. May he finally have the peace that he so strongly desired.
