

Hamp Burris, II

September 29, 1956 - August 9, 2013

Karl Hampton "Hamp" Burris, age 56

Karl Hampton "Hamp" Burris, a lifelong resident of Franklinton, Louisiana passed away at 10:10 AM on Friday, August 9, 2013, at Canon Hospice in Metairie, Louisiana following a three year struggle with head and neck cancer. Hamp worked for over 35 years in the oil industry, his last job as a consultant for New Prospects Company. He was a loving father and grandfather, an avid hunter and fisherman who most enjoyed spending time with friends at his camp in Mississippi. Hamp faced the end of his illness with remarkable courage, taking great care to plan for those he loved.

Survived by:

One son: Jordan Burris

One granddaughter: Adelaide Palmer

Two sisters and brothers-in-law: Debra Burris and Stan Caron of New Orleans, Marianna and Donald Jenkins of Franklinton.

He was preceded in death by his parents Versie Hodges Burris and Karl Hampton Burris Sr.

In keeping with Hamp's wishes, he was cremated and his remains will be scattered at his camp. - Donations may be made on line in Hamp's memory to the American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery Foundation.

“ *Debbie, Please know you are in my heart and prayers. Kerry has been keeping me informed about Hamp in the past few months and how brave he was in facing the future. Guess because he knew his future was with God and Miss Versie and Mr. Hamp. Lovingly,
Martha*

“ To Debra & Marianna, Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care. Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share. You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to. He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do. So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared, The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared. Let memories surround you, a word someone may say Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day, That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here, And fills you with the feeling that he is always near. For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart And he will live forever locked safely within your heart.
