“ I thought a lot of Mr. Harvey, who was very thoughtful and willing to share his opinion on any given subject. Rhonda, I had forgotten that you had been blessed to be his daughter, and seeing your name and being reminded of your connection with him, I remembered why I think so much of you, too. Mr. Harvey was much like my own dad, in that , if he was in the house, you knew it. Never a shrinking violet, he was a man of convictions, and had the courage to make those convictions known. He was my kind of guy, like my own dad. God bless you as you are encouraged with the certain knowledge that Jesus has saved him, and God has called him Home.
