“Forever 20”

Hayden Slayde Davis, born September 30, 2005, passed away far too soon, leaving behind a family and community who loved him deeply. Though his life was short, Hayden’s memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him. Hayden was a beloved son, grandson, partner, father, brother, nephew, and friend. He was cherished by his Maw Maw, Teresa Davis; his grandmother, Dana Durden; and his grandfathers, Jake Runfalo and Shane Richmon. He was also deeply loved by his godparents, Maddy and Chris Blanchard.

He is survived by his longtime partner, Jaida Savarese; his beloved son, Kingston; and his expected daughter, who all will forever carry a part of him with them. He is also survived by his siblings, Alexis Runfalo and Brayden Runfalo; his uncles, Donald Davis and Leslie Davis; his aunt and uncle, Sierra Richmon and Jonathan Runfalo as well as many great aunts and uncles, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever cherish his memory.

He was preceded in death by his father, Earon Davis, and his Paw Paw, Don Davis.

Hayden will be remembered for the love he gave, the memories he created, and the impact he made on those around him. His life, though brief, was meaningful, and his memory will continue to live on through his children, family, and friends.

The family would like to express their heartfelt gratitude to the community for the overwhelming love, support, prayers, and generous donations shown during this incredibly difficult time. Your kindness and compassion have brought comfort that words cannot fully express.
